

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE LUXURY BARGE CRUISE VACATIONS IN BURGUNDY, FRANCE

For anyone who has physical limitations, we operate a hotel barge in Southern Burgundy.

Designed specially to accommodate passengers with physical challenges, fitted with a lift for wheelchairs and a stair lift for access between decks. The doors are wide enough for wheelchair access on all decks.

The Royal suites have a shower seat, commode and handrails next to the shower and the height of the bed is only 70 cm high for easy accessibility. The minibus also has a wheelchair lift.

The Barge cruises for 6 nights from Friday to Thursday between April and October. Every 6 night cruise includes all meals, open bar, regional wines, daily escorted excursions, local air-conditioned accessible return transfer between the vessel and hotel near Dijon

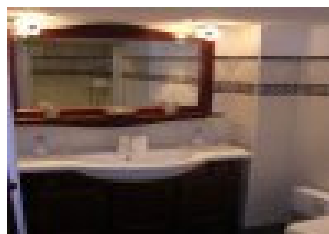

The average crew ratio is one crew member to every two passengers and all cabins have ensuite facilities.

Boarding on arrival day at 5 pm - Disembarkation by 10.30 am on departure day.

Burgundy boasts some of the world's finest wines with almost 60,000 acres of sun-lit vines and arguably the prettiest canal in France. This delightful exchange brings you the finest cruising in Burgundy. Medieval villages are surrounded by unspoiled countryside where gastronomic delights are a culture in themselves.

Exclusions: Items of a personal nature, domestic and international airfare, rail passes, and gratuities.

Cost per person based on double occupancy: US$4,700.00
